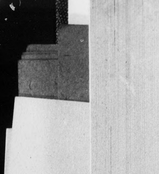
Raiders Awesome Offense Defeat Staunton River 34-0



Mac Weaver

Using an offense that racked over 400 yards net, the Appomattox Raiders scored twice in the second quarter and three times in the fourth quarter to garner a 34-0 Seminole District football victory over winless Staunton River last Friday night.

The hapless Eagles were three times victimized by the air strikes of Appomattox quarterback Mac Weaver, and gave up two or more scores to the rushing of Keith Coleman and Dillard Reynolds.

Weaver connected with Ricky Wingfield for an 88 yard score in the opening moments of the fourth quarter, then on the next series of downs threw short to Willie Lipford who broke tackles and evaded tacklers on a 70 yard jaunt to pay dirt.

Weaver was not finished as he again found Lipford free and dropped a perfect pass into his hands for what should have been a 15 yard gain. Lipford got a quick head of steam and rolled 24 yards for the final touchdown of the game.

Appomattox had scored on a five yard run by Keith Coleman with 10:43 left to play in the second quarter and Reynolds blasted into the end zone from one yard out five minutes later.

Meanwhile, the defensive unit led by Flip Jamerson, Alvin Goff, Warren Coleman and Ricky Kelso was containing the Staunton River offensive unit, limiting the Eagles to only 61 yards total offense in the first half, giving up only two first downs, one by a penalty.

The Eagles ended the night with 152 yards net offense, most of it coming after the game was safely put away by the Raiders and coach Jerry Robinson was using second and third team defenders.

David Mullins, a left-handed, sophomore quarterback, played game football for the Eagles, but inexperience and lack of support from his pass blockers took its toll and the youngster was dropped a total of six times while attempting to pass.

Even so, Mullins completed seven of 15 passes for 54 yards, compared to eight of 14 and 221 yards for Weaver.

The Raiders received the opening kickoff and put the ball in play at their own 41 yard line. Weaver threw long to Ricky Wingfied on the first play from scrimmage, and the play caught the Eagles moving the wrong way as Wingfield was wide open at the Staunton River 30 yard line.

The senior tri-captain was unable to hold on to the football and Appomattox was denied an early score.

The Raiders drove to the Eagles' 11 yard line on runs by Gordon Ford of 10 yards and Bill Lipford of eight yards and two passes for 26 yards, 16 to Keith Coleman and 10 to Wingfield.

Willie Lipford

Staunton River recovered some defensive poise and held the Raiders when Reynolds was stopped short of a first down on a fourth and three situation.

The Eagles netted only five yards on three plays and following a penalty which moved the ball back to the 10 yard line, Gary English boomed a 56 yard punt which rolled dead at the Appomattox 34.

Coleman fumbled on the first play and Buddy Mayhew recovered for Staunton River at the Raiders' 35. Four plays gained only six yards and Appomattox took over at their own 29.

With Reynolds picking up 20 yards on two carries and Coleman getting seven, the Raiders had a third down and three situation at their own 42.

Reynolds broke a tackle at the line of scrimmage and sprinted 37 yards to the Staunton River 21. The senior running back carried for 16 yards on the next play and then Coleman dived into the end zone from the five. Coleman picked the point after and Appomattox led 7-0.

Two plays later Mike Johnson fumbled and Alvin Goff pounced on the ball, giving Appomattox good field position at the Eagles' 30 yard line. Coleman and Reynolds alternated carrying the ball with Reynolds scoring from the one on the seventh play of the series.

Neither team could get any offensive drive during the third period, although Appomattox did recover another Johnson fumble at the 31 yard line of Staunton River. Weaver threw incomplete passes three times and Ford was dropped for a two yard loss to end the scoring threat.

Staunton River's only satisfaction in the game came on the punting of English. The 200-pound junior center punted six times for an average of 40.4 yards. In addition to the 56 yarder in the first period, English unloaded one for 55 yards in the third quarter and had two short punts, 30 yards each, which gave the Raiders poor field position, inside their own 20 yard line.

Coaches Select Players of Week

The Appomattox County coaching staff has selected four players for Player of the Week honors following the Raiders 34-0 conquest of Staunton River last Friday.

Quarterback Mac Weaver, running back Willie Lipford, halfback Dillard Reynolds and defensive end Alvin Goff will each receive a free steak dinner at Maude's Restaurant and a free pizza from George's Snack Bar.

Weaver completed eight of 14 passes for 221 yards and three touchdowns as he gave his finest performance of the season. Reynolds, who will be lost to the Raiders the rest of the season due to a knee injury, scored on a one yard run and picked up valuable yardage as he gained 92 yards in 13 carries.

Lipford also his finest game of the season, snagging scoring passes of 70 and 24 yards in the fourth quarter to help the Raiders insure victory.

Goff recovered a Staunton River fumble, sacked the quarterback three times and had four individual tackles and seven assists as he spent most of the game in the Golden Eagles' backfield.

Alvin Goff

Dillard Reynolds

Goff, Weaver and Reynolds are juniors while Lipford is a senior.

ASCS Seeks Nominees

Most resident farmers are eligible to hold office as ASC committeemen. If a farmer would like detailed information concerning eligibility requirements, he or she should contact the county ASCS office.

In filling out a petition, farmers should be careful to include the name of only one nominee, the signatures of at three eligible ASC voters who support the nominee, and certification that the nominee is willing to serve if elected. Petitions must contain this information; without it, they will not be accepted. The completed petition should be dated and mailed or hand-delivered to the county ASCS office no later than Oct. 28.

ASC committee elections are open to all eligible ASC voters without regard to race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Ford explains that any concerned farmer with an interest in serving fellow producers would be an asset to the ASC committee. For this reason, farmers are urged to petition for the farmers of their choice. The individual producer will benefit in the long run from a responsible, concerned team of ASC committeemen in the local administration of U.S. government farm programs, Ford said.

Appomattox county has 3 ASC communities. The names of these communities are Cloverhill, Southside & Stonewall.

Railroad War Recalled By Festival

the north end of the Union's Petersburg line but he the attack stalled and the Johnson drove him back. On one of the southbound trains leaving Richmond on April 3 found Jefferson Davis and his staff.

Lee's hope was to withdraw either southwest to Danville or west to Lynchburg - at either of which locaties Johnston could possibly join him. Amelia Court House has been designated as the rallying point. Lee had ordered rations sent there from Richmond but due to a staff mix up Lee found no rations. Lee's hopes of supply from Danville were ended when an excited operator at Farmville telegraphed that the Yankees had overrun Burkeville Junction and that the route to Danville was blocked. But beyond the junction the South Side RR still operated, and Lee shifted his army from southwest to west toward Farmville, in a kiling night march.

Early on 7 April, the remaining Confederates reached, where their spirits briefly soared when they saw a South Side train, filled with rations, waiting at the station. But the federal pursuit was relentless; hardly had the advance Confederates gotten their bacon frying when the train had to chug hastily away to avoid being cut off. It was whispered that it was the only train the South Side had left. Lee continued his march west, crossing to the north bank of the Appomattox River and setting up on the bridges behind him. The great wooden truss bridge of the South Side RR over the river was known as the "High Bridge" and was reportedly the second highest span on the North American continent at the time of the Civil War. The wooden portion rested on more than 20 brick piers and was 128 feet above water; the entire bridge was about 2,400 feet long. The pursuing federal forced managed to extinguish the blaze after it had destroyed about four spans. Firefighters accomplished their task while skirmishers were still stopping away in the immediate vicinity. Union engineers accomplished temporary trestle work which carried trains safely across the Appomattox at slow speeds until permanent repairs were made.

The Confederate railroad had not, in fact, been reduced to such extremity as was whispered at Farmville, but the steam locomotive nevertheless was about to serve the Army of Northern Virginia for the last time. Early on 8 April 8 four additional trainloads of supplies came down the line from Lynchburg; at an obscure siding called Appomattox Station they ground to a halt and began to discharge their precious freight. NEXT WEEK: Appomattox Station - Last Stop On The Long Road Compiled by Mac Pherson, VPI Extension Community Resource Development.

Railroad Festival Leader

Anne Robinson, left, Paul Ghito, Barbara Mac Pherson and Betsy Carter will all make appearances on area television this week as they promote the Appomattox Railroad Festival to be held here October 12 and 13.

Surprises Mark Seminole

William Campbell continues to surprise opponents in the Seminole District football race while Altavista continues its stubborn streak before losing to district leader, Brookville, 12-7 Friday night.

The Bees trailed the winless Colonels, 7-6 with just under eight minutes left in the ball game before Barrye Madero tossed a 16 yard scoring strike to Ricky Cash to pull out the win.

In other action, Amherst County finally got its offense untracked and ripped Jefferson Forest, 46-0. William Campbell scored three times in the final period to down Gretna 28-13, Rustburg dumped Liberty, 8-0 and Appomattox smothered Staunton River, 34-0.

Last week we were right on four games and wrong on one, the Rustburg win over Liberty. On the season we are 14-4 with two ties. This week's selections: Appomattox over Gretna. The Hawks have not been able to put it all together and the Raiders fine offensive showing at Staunton River should give them the confidence they need to break Gretna's defense.

Jefferson Forest in a close one over Altavista. The Cavaliers are stinging from last week's rout at the hands of Amherst and Altavista's duel with Brookville may have taken too much out of Mike Head's charges.

Amherst County will explode the Generals balloon as the Lancers will defeat William Campbell. Ronnie Cox has done a fine job at William Campbel, but Tom Berry seems to have the Lancers on the right track and they should win easily.

Liberty has been disappointing in its first three starts, beating only Altavista. Brookville is beginning to smell layoff air, so the Bees have only over the Minutemen.

Nelson County and Rustburg played to ties the past two years, but we think the Governors will want this one for new coach Dennis Brown.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Travis Taylor Wooldridge, who passed away nine years ago October 1, 1965.

Your gentle face and patient smile,
With sadness we recall
You had a kindly word for each
And died beloved by all.

You are not forgotten loved one
Nor will you ever be,
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee.

We miss you now, our hearts are sore,
As time goes by we miss you more.
Your loving smile, your gentle face
No one can fill your vacant place.

Sadly missed by wife and by his children and their families. 10-3-1p

In Memoriam

Wagner: In loving memory of my husband, Allen V. Wagner, who left us one year ago today, October 2, 1973.
Your leaving us is like a dream that just could not be true
though one year has passed the days seem very few, so unexpectedly and suddenly
you quietly went away.
Not being able to say good-bye will always bring regret, but the ones who love you most are the ones that don't forget
Just a cluster of beautiful memories sprayed with a million tears wishing God could have spared you just a few more years. In some ways most everyday memories of you come our way.
Though absent you are always
near, still loved, still missed
and still very dear.
Love always,
Wife, Mother, Step-daughter
